Brown Rudnick Donates to International Red Cross for Haiti Earthquake

Boston, MA, January 15, 2010 – Brown Rudnick, an international law firm, has made a Firm donation of $25,000 to the International Red Cross in support of emergency international disaster relief efforts in the aftermath of the catastrophic Haiti earthquake. The donation was made through the Firm's Center for the Public Interest, the umbrella entity that encompasses the Firm's pro bono, charitable giving and community involvement efforts.

The International Red Cross has estimated that as many as 3 million people may be in need of emergency relief, with the need for humanitarian assistance to provide search and rescue and medical assistance, as well as food, shelter, water and sanitation for displaced persons being of overwhelming proportions. In addition to the International Red Cross, which already has a large scale relief effort in Haiti underway, a smaller part of the donation will go to Boston-based Partners in Health, a firm that has been providing health care to the poor in Haiti for over 20 years and which has established an emergency field hospital to aid quake victims.
