BROWN RUDNICK SPONSORS 2007 ENGLISH TECH TOUR

24 technology companies named most promising in England

Tina Baker, Partner in firm's Corporate Group in London, served on Selection Committee

London, U.K., October 23, 2007 -- Brown Rudnick, a premier international law firm, today announced that its Corporate Practice Group was a silver sponsor of the English Tech Tour on October 17 – 19, 2007. Produced by the European Tech Tour Association (ETT), the English Tech Tour is a unique two-day tour across the country for 60 privately invited international professionals from VC funds, leading corporations and institutional investors. The tour showcased the best of England's high-growth, early-stage technology companies to VCs in order to help these start-ups secure funding and/or alliance partnerships.

Tina Baker, a Partner in Brown Rudnick's Corporate Group in London served as a member of Tech Tour's Selection Committee. In this role, Ms. Baker participated in the screening and selection of the companies that presented to the delegates at the English Tech Tour. The Selection Committee ultimately selected 24 winners from a pool of nearly 300 candidates after evaluating the each candidate's technology, strength of its business model and vision, capability to execute on the business plan, and quality and track record of the management team.

The companies selected to present were:

Company	Location	Company	Location
Acrobot	London	Short Fuze	Cambridge
Artimi	Cambridge	Silistix	Manchester
Buy.at	Newcastle	Skinkers	London

Press Release

Brown Rudnick's Emerging Companies Team provides strategic advice and guidance to business organizations through all phases of their growth, from start-up, to enhancing and managing growth, through the execution of an exit strategy. Drawing from the full menu of capabilities, this practice group has established enduring relationships with these corporate "life cycle" clients.

Facilitating access to seed and growth capital, Brown Rudnick represents investors and companies seeking financing. Clients include emerging growth companies, angel investors, strategic corporate investors, domestic and offshore venture capital funds, hedge funds, private equity funds, commodity pools and similar investment vehicles. London team members continue to define industry standards in the venture capital sector in the UK and across Europe. And as long-time supporters of both BVCA and EVCA, the firm has had the opportunity to contribute significantly to the development of this sector.

Brown Rudnick is also a continuing sponsor of programs and initiatives that support the entrepreneurial community, such as the newly established SeedCamp in London, the MIT $50K Entrepreneurship Competition, MIT Enterprise Forum, Harvard Biotechnology Club Business Plan Competition, Babson College's Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship Business Plan Competition and Rocket Pitch, Boston University's Entrepreneurial Management Institute, Connecticut Venture Group, Brown Venture Group and Slater Center for Interactive Technologies.

About European Tech Tour

The European Tech Tour Association (ETT) was founded by Sven Lingjaerde in Switzerland in 1998 and has successfully organised 27 Tech Tours across Europe and a première in India last year since its inception nine years ago. In response to the growing interest to visit emerging technology companies in various European regions, the ETT is an independent organisation composed of key contributors to the high-technology industry.

Focused on the global expansion of emerging companies with a high index of growth, the European Tech Tour Association's main objective is to provide independent leading platforms designed to identify and support the emerging companies with the necessary potential to impact in the technological global scenario. The association recognises that continued European prosperity lies in its ability to transform today's innovative projects into tomorrow's global technology leaders.
